Review & Approval

The Department Chair and the Originator certify the requirements below have been met. Follow-up on these items is maintained at the department level by the Department Chair and faculty teaching DE courses and through the faculty evaluation process.

- ☐ Accessibility (Title 5, section 55200, 42 U.S.C. s 12100 et seq., section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. s 794d).

Course content and delivery is accessible to all students.

- ☐ Course Quality Standards (Title 5, section 55202)

The online course content and objectives are of the same quality as those applied to traditional classroom courses.

- ☐ Instructor Contact (Title 5, section 55204)

Each section of the course which is delivered through distance education will include regular and substantive contact and interaction between instructor and students.

* see Guidelines for Regular Effective Instructor Contact

- ☐ Course Quality Determinations (Title 5, section 55206)

Determinations and judgments about the quality of the distance education course offering were made with the full involvement of the faculty as defined by Administrative Regulation E-65 and college curriculum approval procedures.

- ☐ Substantive Change

Accreditation requirements stipulate that before 50% or more of the required units that make up a certificate or program are offered via distance education, a substantive change report must be filed and approved. Please review your department's distance education offerings and determine whether offering the class online would trigger a substantive change requirement.
