- Internet Access

Recommend Supplies

- Access to a laptop or desktop computer, Mac or PC, with internet access
- Pens, pencils, paper, and notebook to take notes and organize work. A 3-ring loose-leaf notebook with dividers is preferred.

Grading:

A variety of assignments will be given including end of chapter review, word fill-in, end of chapter assignments, and two exams. All assignments and exams will be graded on a point basis and the final grade will be based on the total number of points accumulated.

Explanation of letter grading system:

- 90% and above = A An "A" assignment is one that is outstanding in all respects of the class.
- 80 - 89% = B A "B" assignment represents above average work.
- 70 - 79% = C A "C" assignment is average work; it meets but does not exceed the requirements.
- 60 - 69% = D A "D" assignment represents below satisfactory work.
- Below 60% = n/p (no pass) An "n/p" means that the work is below acceptable standards. The student who receives an n/p grade should make an appointment to see the educator to discuss the errors made so that he/she may learn from them and improve on the next assignment.

Drop Policy: It is the student's responsibility to officially drop from any class he/she does not plan to continue to attend. Any drops or exclusions that occur between the end of the 4th week and the end of the 14th week will result in a "W" on the student's record. Drops are not permitted beyond the end of the 14th week; a letter grade must be assigned.

Incomplete Policy: Students will not be given an incomplete grade in the course without sound reason as described in the College Catalog. In any case, for a student to receive an incomplete, he or she must be passing and must have completed a significant portion of the course.

Academic Honesty:

In education, business, and personal life, ethics are of utmost importance. Therefore, academic honesty is expected. Any instance of academic dishonesty (cheating) will significantly affect the grade of all individuals involved, and disciplinary action may be taken.

In this class interaction is encouraged and some assignments will be done as a group. Each person, however, must develop his or her own solutions to the assigned projects, assignments, and tasks. In other words, students may not "work together" on graded assignments but are encouraged to offer help and advice. A student may not use or copy (by any means) another's work (or portions of it) and represent it as his/her own.

Need for Assistance:

If you have any condition, such as a physical or learning disability, which will make it difficult for you to carry out the work as I have outlined it, or which will require academic accommodations, please notify me as soon as possible.

Additional Notes:

1. Regular and prompt class attendance is extremely important. Doing the assignments helps you improve your accounting and electronic bookkeeping skills; contributing to the class discussions also helps your learning and makes the class a more lively and interesting place to work; however, you cannot make a contribution to class if you are not here.

Your attendance will influence your final grade for the semester.

If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what was missed.

Assignments are due on the date scheduled (see Schedule of Assignments). Late assignments are accepted within one week of the due date; however, the grade on the assignment grade is lowered one grade level.

1. There will be two end of section exams. The final exam will be the second end of section exam. No make-up or exams will be given.

1. Keep all handouts and graded assignments in a 3-ring binder for ease of reference. Keep all graded assignments until the end of the semester.

1. This is a fast-paced, intensive course that will require considerable outside work and preparation. It will be assumed that you have a good understanding of basic accounting rules. These will not be covered extensively in class. If you don't feel you have these basic skills, it is recommended that you take ACCT 1 or 21, 22, before taking this class.
2. If we are to get through this material each session you need to be prepared. Please read assigned material before class exercises and before attempting an assignment. If you are unprepared, you will be penalizing the entire class, not just yourself.

1. Ask questions when you are unsure about something—that is part of your responsibility as a student
2. Write the name and contact information for two students in the class:

Name _____ Phone No. _____ e-mail:
